in a Civil Lawsuit against Defendants Bishop Eddie L. Long, New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, and The Longfellows Youth Academy, Inc. The Civil Complaint alleges Bishop Long utilized his spiritual authority as Bishop and leader of the Defendants' ministries to coerce certain young male members and employees of Defendant New Birth and pupils of Defendant Longfellows Academy into engaging in sexual acts and relationships for his own personal sexual gratification.

Re: 31C-AT-NEW, 11/15/2010

Bishop Long is the Senior Pastor and Chief Executive Officer of New Birth Missionary Baptist Church, Inc. (NBMBC). NBMBC is a non-profit corporation located at 6400 Woodrow Road, Lithonia, Georgia, 30038. NBMBC has grown to over 25,000 members since Bishop Long first served as pastor in 1987.

The Longfellows Youth Academy, Inc. (Longfellows) is a non-profit corporation located at 6400 Woodrow Road, Lithonia, Georgia, 30038. Longfellows is a tuition based program for young men, aged 13 through 18, which purports to train young men to love, live and lead as they proceed on their "masculine journey." Bishop Long personally participates in the Longfellows program as a pastor, counselor, mentor and confidant to the young men enrolled.

On 10/25/2010, Attorney [redacted] met with the following individuals at the Richard B. Russell Federal Building in the Northern District of Georgia; USA Sally Yates, AUSA [redacted] [redacted] AUSA [redacted] AUSA [redacted] AUSA [redacted] [redacted] ASSA [redacted] (FBI), SA [redacted] (FBI), SA [redacted] (FBI), SA [redacted] (FBI), SAC [redacted] (IRS) and ASAC [redacted] (IRS). [redacted] advised Bishop Long has a pattern and practice of singling out a select group of young male church members and using his authority as Bishop over them to ultimately bring them to a point of engaging in a sexual relationship. Attorney [redacted] advised some of Bishop Long's sexual acts and relationships with the captioned victims occurred before the victims were eighteen years of age. Although the majority of Bishop Long's congregation is likely unaware of the aforesaid practices, many of Bishop Long's victims are known throughout the Church as the "Spiritual Sons" of Bishop Long.

Bishop Long typically engages in a private spiritual ceremony described as a "covenant" between himself and each young Spiritual Son. The Covenant Ceremony includes an exchange of vows and assurances by Bishop Long that he will forever protect the young men from harm by anyone. Bishop Long uses various rituals in the Ceremony including candles, exchange of jewelry, and discussion of Biblical verses that reinforce the spiritual and God-like connection between himself and the young men.

Bishop Long uses monetary funds from the accounts of NBMBC and Longfellows, among other corporate and non-profit corporate accounts, to entice the chosen Spiritual Sons with cars, clothes, jewelry and electronics. The Spiritual Sons are taken on public and private jets to domestic (USA) and international destinations, housed in luxury hotels and given access to numerous celebrities including entertainment stars and politicians. The Spiritual Sons are also placed on the payroll of NBMBC and become paid employees.

On 10/25/2010, USA Sally Yates agreed to prosecute Bishop Long for potential violations of the White Slave Trafficking Act, Title 18, Section 2251. The Internal Revenue Service will assist with this investigation to determine if Bishop Long defrauded or abused the 501c3 (non-profit corporation) status of NBMBC, Longfellows or other affiliated ministries.

Bishop Eddie Long, a black male, has a date of birth of 05/12/1953 and a social security account number of 244-92-9206. Bishop Long resides at 1267 Greenridge Ave, Lithonia, Georgia, 30058, telephone number 770-413-6894.

Bishop Eddie Long's Fifth Accuser Takes to Facebook During Settlement Talks | Centino Kemp

FOX 5 I-Team exclusive report

ATLANTA, Ga. - Sources tell FOX 5's I-Team that the mysterious fifth accuser in the Bishop Eddie Long sexual misconduct scandal can't talk about the case because he's part of the secret settlement. But he can make music. Senior I-Team reporter Dale Russell tracked what Centino Kemp wrote about during those settlement talks.

In the lyrics to his music and the writings on Facebook and Twitter, Centino Kemp, 22, shows a range of emotions-- from anger and bitterness to sexual provocation, and at times a flamboyant sense of humor.

When people find his songs on YouTube or iTunes, what will color their listening is that as the I-Team uncovered, Centino Kemp was involved in the Bishop Eddie Long sexual misconduct settlement talks.

When Russell caught up with Kemp outside a small recording studio, he would not talk about Bishop Long. After walking away from the question, he later sprinted to his awaiting limousine and drove off.

Our sources say after four young men filed sexual misconduct suits against Bishop Eddie Long, Centino Kemp came forward with more allegations of sexual misconduct.

One source says Centino Kemp, who was raised in the Bahamas, met Bishop Eddie Long years ago during a visit to New Birth Missionary Baptist Church while he was a teenage student in a Florida college. The relationship meant enough for him to tattoo Eddie Long's name on his wrist, followed by the words, "Never a Mistake, Always a Lesson."

He didn't know the other young men and never filed suit, but our sources say he was part of the settlement in the Bishop Long case.

The final settlement talks took place during the week of April 17, including one intensive, all-night negotiation at the DeKalb County Courthouse. On Kemp's Facebook page on April 20, he wrote, "Today may change my life forever," and "Mother I'm sorry."

His Facebook page for that day shows he said he was at the Colony Square Starbucks, located in the same building as the young men's attorney, B.J. Bernstein. Then, an hour later, he posted that he was at the DeKalb County Courthouse, where the settlement talks took place.

Two days later, Judge Johnny Panos, who presided over the lawsuits, said the case was all but settled. When the money was delivered to the young men in late May, Kemp wrote on his Facebook page, "I may be bad but I got paid perfectly good for it."

Soon after the settlement, Centino Kemp began recording music in $100 dollar an hour sessions in studios in Atlanta. Video shot inside the studio shows Centino at work. Some of the songs are profanity-laced, sexually-charged, upbeat songs told from the point of view of a bitter lover, like Kemp's song titled Pornography.

Bishop Eddie Long had no comment about the I-Team's story regarding Centino Kemp, but the young man who stayed anonymous and quiet during the sexual misconduct scandal is now letting his music do his talking.
